Celebrating the Life of

Carol Haupt

07.11.1950 - 12.08.2026

Thursday 27th August, 2026 at 11.30am
McCormack Chapel, Mansfield

These are the days.
The good days. The hard days.
The long days. The fleeting days. The fun days.
The impossible days. The boring days.
The busy days. The sweet days. The tired days.
The moments-turning-to-memories days.

They are messy.
They are magic.
They are the pages of her story and writing them with LOVE YOU.

Order of Service

Opening Song

Man I Feel a Woman (Shania Twain)

Candle is lit and a rose placed on coffin in memory of Carol.

Welcome & Introduction - Andrew Howie

Eulogy - Manfred Haupt

Tributes from Family and Friends

Kürsti Dunn

Manfred - Memories and invite grandchildren to come forward

Grandchildren - Freya, Cooper , Dieter, Pippa & Soren

Judith McGann (Carol's cousin and goddaughter)

Tara Awty (Carol's Friend)

Vanessa Dawson

Poem to be read by Addy Awty

A Tribute In Pictures

Achy Breaky Heart (Billy Ray Cyrus) & Legs (ZZ Top)

Invitation to come forward to sign and decorate Carol's coffin accompanied to a song by Freya and music by Dolly Parton.

Farewell Words and Blessing

Recessional Music

Nothing Compares to You (Sinead O'Connor)

Coffin Bearers - Manfred, Simon, Cooper, Dieter, Soren, Steve

You are invited to place a sprig of rosemary with Carol in the hearse as you say farewell

Carol's family would like to thank you for attending today to celebrate her life and for your kind expressions of sympathy and support.

After the service, you are warmly invited to join family and friends for refreshments at the Mansfield Hotel to share more memories of Carol.

McCormack
FUNERALS
Peace of mind